

SALIS Conference 1986

The last issue of SALIS News incorrectly gave the dates of this year's conference. Please amend your calendar and add a day -- October 28 - 31. Welcome and reception will begin Tuesday evening, October 28, conference presentations and business meetings through noon, October 31, 1986. Don't miss the chance to spend a day in training (hands on a PC) for BRS and Cork Online! There will be new video, films and a slide tape on alcohol in art. A keynote speaker will be announced. If you have an idea for or would like to make a presentation, please contact the SALIS Chair:

Virginia Rolett, SALIS Chair

Alcohol Data Base Update

Negotiations are still underway regarding the National Clearinghouse for Alcohol Information online alcohol data base. The current plan is to make the data base accessible via DIALOG by the end of this year. Although there has been a slight decrease in records added to the data base per month, the number of records now exceeds 35,000 (inclusive dates 1980 to the present). Long range plans for a thesaurus have been curtailed somewhat by cutbacks due to Gramm-Rudman. SALIS members who do online searching and know the advantages of keyword lists or thesauri should write letters to the NIAAA Prevention and Research Dissemination Division in support of this kind of documentation. Write to:

Drug Data Base Planned

The Families in Action Drug Abuse Update is being developed for an online version currently in prototype stage. A partnership between several associations concerned with drug abuse problems has been created to facilitate this endeavor. Plans to index and abstract newspaper clippings, drug cultures and parent movement publications, as well as drug and other substance abuse journal articles are underway.

A major goal is to develop a data base of approximately 150,000 records over the next five years. For more information contact:

Decatur, GA 30033

ARF Library COM Catalogue

The ARF Library has one of the world's best collections of alcohol and drug abuse literature. Since November 1983, the ARF Library has been building a catalogue database using the University of Toronto Library Automation System (UTLAS). The database now comprises 10,000 book records and 9,000 reprint records, which include ARF substudies, internal documents, ARF authored reprints and publications as well as Canadian Temperance materials.

The COM is divided into three sections:

- The Author/Title catalogue provides author and title access to the entire catalogued collection, including books and reprints
- The Subject catalogue provides access to the book collection using Library of Congress Subject Headings. All subject terms are fully cross-referenced.
- The KWIC catalogue provides key word access to the reprint collection.

For the first time, ARF is offering this unique product to external organizations and health sciences libraries. The ARF COM catalogue will serve as an invaluable tool for bibliographic verification in interlibrary loans, as well as a cataloguing aid for the smaller libraries. All entries are catalogued according to AACR II standards, using Library of Congress Classification and Library of Congress Subject Headings.

Cost to SALIS Members

CAN $100 (CAN $130 for non-members) for six-month subscription which includes a full cumulation and five months cumulated supplements.

Saltz, Robert and Donna Elandt. "College Student Drinking Studies 1976 - 1985." Berkeley, CA: Prevention Research Center, 1986. Contemporary Drug Problems, Vol. 13, No. 1, 1986, forthcoming.

This literature review begins where the Blane and Hewitt review of youth drinking 1960 - 1975 ended. A compilation of empirical studies in the U. S. which report on prevalence, sex differences, religion, ethnicity, trends, attitudes, maturation, parental drinking, peer pressure, etc. Available unpublished version:

Stewart, Alva W. Drug Smuggling: The Problem and Efforts to Curb It. Public Administration Series: Bibliography PT845. Monticello, IL: Vance Bibliographies, January, 1986. 12 pp. $3.75

Newspaper and periodical articles (from both the popular press and academic journals) comprise most of the citations listed here along with five book titles and eleven government publications. Although most of the references date from 1980, there are some back to mid 70's, especially in the government publications. A short introduction provides some background information.

Taylor, Earl and Roberta Zonghi. Massachusetts Temperance Societies' Publications: A Bibliography of Nineteenth-Century Materials Held in the Boston Public Library, the American Antiquarian Society, and the Massachusetts Historical Society. New York: Garland Publishing, 1984. 181 pp. $39.00.

All of the 450 citations listed refer to items published or caused to be published by temperance societies in Massachusetts in the 19th century. The work is organized by 1) "publications of societies" (alphabetical by society); 2) "publications relating to conventions" (chronological) and 3) "publications relating to more than one society." Additionally there is a separate alphabetical list of the societies (more than 100!), and an index of titles, authors, related individuals, printers, publishers and book sellers.

Just scanning the titles, one gets the sense of a very impassioned reform movement. Along with the constitutions, bylaws, and annual reports, there are essays, tales, collections of songbooks and hymns, addresses and sermons. A few titles to note: "Plain Facts, Addressed to the Inhabitants of Boston, on the City Expenses for the Support of Pauperism, Vice and Crime"; "The Criminality of Intemperance"; "The Drunkard A Destroyer"; "Treason Against Humanity"; "The Evils of Intemperance, Exemplified in Poetry and Prose"; "The True Helpers Trying"; "Thoughts on the Moral Physiology and Pathology of the Diseases of Liquor Drinking with Advice and Hints." For temperance historians -- a valuable tool.

Womble, Maxine. "Annotated Bibliography." Pp. 221 - 247 in: Treatment of Black Alcoholics, special issue of Alcoholism Treatment Quarterly, Vol. 2, Nos. 3/4, Fall, 1985 (also published as a separate monograph by Haworth Press -- $19.95 hardback).

This annotated bibliography focuses on material concerning Blacks and alcohol treatment, and other literature concerning Black drinking and family life as it may be relevant to Blacks and treatment. Includes books, journal articles, government documents, and chapters from edited works; time period covered is 1976 - 1984.

LAST CHANCE TO RENEW

SALIS Conference 1986

Information Services Approaching the 21st Century is the theme of the 8th Annual SALIS Conference to be held at Dartmouth in Hanover, New Hampshire, October 28 - 31. Many interesting and informative presentations and training sessions have been planned including "Alcohol in Art" -- a slide presentation; "Providing Reference Service Using Manual Sources" -- a panel presentation; "Public Images of Information Services"; and training for Cork Online and BRS.

Additional papers are still invited on any topic related to the organization and dissemination of alcohol and drug information.

The preliminary agenda, conference registration and hotel information for the SALIS Conference have been mailed out to all SALIS and DRACON members. Accommodations for conference participants are available at the Hanover Inn, the site of the Conference, or the Occum Inn -- five minutes away. Remember to put October 28 - 31 on your calendar for this event and please try to be there. Contact Virginia Rolett, SALIS Chair for more information.

New Terms from PsychInfo

The American Psychological Association has added several new descriptors specifically related to alcohol and drug abuse in the 4th edition of the Thesaurus of Psychological Index Terms, used to index documents in Psychological Abstracts and the online PsychInfo; beginning in 1985, the following index terms are available:

Employee Assistance Programs -- "Programs or services provided by the employer to help employees with personal or other matters, including retirement planning or alcohol rehabilitation."

Fetal Alcohol Syndrome -- (no scope note)

Impaired Professionals -- "Professional personnel who are physically or psychologically disordered to the extent that such disorders interfere with the performance of professional duties or conflict with professional standards. Does not include handicaps that do not interfere with professional performance."

Inhalant Abuse -- "Inhalation of vapors from volatile chemical substances (such as aerosol sprays, solvents, and anesthetics) in order to produce mind-altering effects."

New terms in psychopharmacology:

Benzodiazepine Antagonists

Drug Discrimination

Endogenous Opiates

Receptor Binding

Related to food addiction:

Bulimia

Weight Control

New Terms from NLM

The National Library of Medicine has added these MESH terms for 1986:

Professional Impairment -- "The inability of a health professional to provide proper professional care of patients due to his or her physical and/or mental disability."

Tobacco, Smokeless replaces Snuff

Other interesting new terms are:

Alternative Medicine

Homeless Persons

Neuropharmacology

EAP Clearinghouse

Employee assistance program information is now available through the EAP Clearinghouse. The Association of Labor-Management Administrators and Consultants on Alcoholism is the organization implementing this new service based on a needs assessment of the ALMACAN membership. EAP program literature back to the early 70's is being abstracted and indexed for an on-line database to be ready for searching by clearinghouse staff in the early part of 1987. Periodical News

Announcing a new biannual journal -- Journal of Chemical Dependency Treatment -- Haworth Press. The charter issue will have a special theme on the relationship and intimacy problems of substance abusers. The first issue is scheduled for Spring/Summer 1987.

Drugs and Society, (Haworth Press); Vol. 1, No. 1 is scheduled for Fall 86 and has a theme of "Perspectives on Drug Use in the U. S."

The National Library of Medicine will review four alcohol and drug journals in 1986/87 for possible indexing in Index Medicus and MEDLINE. They are: Research Communications in Substances of Abuse and NIAAA Research Monograph Series (to be reviewed October 1986), Alcoholism Treatment Quarterly and Australian Alcohol Drug Review (to be reviewed June 1987). In a letter to Nancy Sutherland, Ms. Robin Chivers, Associate Editor of Index Medicus, acknowledged the problem of access to literature in interdisciplinary areas such as substance abuse, but stated that a specialized database (such as MEDLINE) "Has more obligations to the central subject areas of its discipline than to the peripheral aspects." In other words, Index Medicus will continue to focus on the medical aspects of alcohol and drug abuse and not the peripheral (to NLM) social aspects.

Beware

Harrington Park Press is a new branch of Haworth Press, which publishes several journals and books on alcohol and drug abuse. Titles under the Harrington imprint are identical copies of books or journals previously published by Haworth, but in paperback and at lower prices. Acquisitions librarians should be alert to duplicating orders for publications they may already have in their collections under a different title. A recent title from Harrington, "Gay and Sober," is the same as the 1982 publication from Haworth Press, "Alcoholism & Homosexuality." Beware!

BIBLIOGRAPHIES

Page, Penny Booth. Alcohol Use and Alcoholism: A Guide to the Literature. New York: Garland Publishing, 1986. 164 pp. $26.00

Here is a new bibliography which should be purchased by all SALIS members! It contains over 400 annotations of books, government documents, pamphlets and leaflets -- all of those items which are never located through traditional indexes or on-line sources. There are sixteen sections to the work; the first two chapters include 1) general reference and handbooks; and 2) audiovisual aids (Note: the latter includes sources to assist in finding alcohol and drug films and not annotations of specific films or audiovisuals). The other fourteen chapters are major topic areas in the field such as, History of alcohol use and misuse; Effects of alcohol on the body; Alcohol problems in the family; Children of alcoholics; and Alcohol education and prevention.

The major audiences of this work are parents, teachers, librarians, youth, alcohol counselors, social workers, community groups and other health professionals.

All of the materials being annotated are published, English language and comprise a time frame of 1960 - 1985 with most items from the mid 70's to the present. Additionally there are author and title indexes, and appendices of resource organizations and a list of alcohol-related periodicals.

Penny Page is a librarian and alcohol researcher from the Rutgers Center of Alcohol Studies and an active SALIS member.

CONFERENCES

A number of persons have sent conference dates and announcements to SALIS News for inclusion. However, since there are already several other periodicals and documents that list these conference dates, it is my suggestion that rather than fill up the pages in the SALIS News with that same information, perhaps what might be more appropriate is a list of sources where one can find information on conferences, workshops and training programs.

The following are some of the ones used most at the Alcohol Research Group Library. If any of you have others to recommend, please write and I will list them in the next issue.

-- ICAA News. International Council on Alcohol and the Addictions. (Quarterly newsletter). Case Postale 140, 1001 Lausanne/Switzerland.

Most of the meetings listed in this calendar are international.

-- The Journal. Addiction Research Foundation. Monthly. Addiction Research Foundation, 33 Russell Street, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 2S1.

Listings include meetings in the U. S., Canada, and abroad.

- Prevention Pipeline. NIAAA Prevention Branch. Bimonthly newsletter. Rockville, MD: U. S. National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism.
 - 1986 Alcoholism and Addiction Conference Calendar Plus Seminars & Workshops Summer School Directory. In: Alcoholism and Addiction, April 1986. Seattle, WA: ALCOM. 1005 N. E. 72nd, Seattle, WA 98115.
 - Alcohol and Drug Problems Association of North America. Professional Training and Educational Opportunities. 1986 Schedule. Available from ADPA, 444 North Capitol Street N. W., Suite 181, Washington, DC 20001. 27 pp.
- Lists regional, state and national association conferences and some workshops. Includes meetings sponsored by Hazelden, Caron Institute, the Conference Center, Johnson Institute, and others.

Reed, Patricia G. and David Sanchez. Characteristics of Alcoholism Services in the United States -- 1984. Rockville, MD: U. S. NIAAA, Division of Biometry and Epidemiology, 1986. 31 pp.

This is the report on the data from the 1984 National Alcoholism and Drug Abuse Program Inventory (NADAPI) -- formerly named National Drug and Alcohol Treatment Utilization Survey (NDATUS). Includes statistical information on treatment services for alcoholism available in the U. S. such as numbers and percent distributions of clients in treatment by location and environment; services offered at treatment and non-treatment alcoholism units (includes such areas as DWI programs, family therapy, aftercare followup, etc.); specialized (i.e. youth, black, women, etc.) programs offered (comparison of 1982 to 1984); number and percent distribution of treatment and non-treatment alcoholism units by ownership: private (for profit, nonprofit), public (state, local government, federal government) and comparisons with years 1979 - 1984. Unfortunately the data collected in this 84 survey did not include all of the former information collected by NDATUS such as funding, characteristics of patients, and staff. Available from:

LAW/POLICY SOURCES

Kuwatch, Ed. California Drunk Driving Law: A Comprehensive Reference to the Law of Drunk Driving in California. Third Edition. Berkeley, CA: Fast Eddie Publishing. 1986.

California Drunk Driving Law, by Ed Kuwatch, is a useful guide for attorneys and legal scholars to California's frequently changing criminal intoxicated driving laws. However, its major limitation is noted on the title page. The book is written for lawyers defending clients on criminal intoxicated driving charges, and is not recommended for a non-professional audience.

Within these limitations, the book provides a unique resource -- a practice guide focusing specifically on California law on the intoxicated driving issue. Chapters are devoted to the various statutory provisions, and numerous technical considerations such as penalties, evidence, defenses, and pretrial and trial procedures. Included are handy tips for practitioners and sample legal forms. The volume also contains frequent references to cases and other legal treatises of value.

California Drunk Driving Law should be on the bookshelf of any attorney handling California criminal intoxicated driving cases. Updates of the current volume are planned, which should retain its usefulness.

Nichols, Donald H. Drinking/Driving Litigation: Criminal and Civil. (4 volumes). Wilmette, IL: Callaghan & Company, 1985.

This compendium is an ambitious attempt to cover both the civil and criminal aspects of alcoholic beverage consumption. It is clearly written for criminal and civil attorneys only, and is not recommended to the lay audience.

With such a large scope, it is inevitable that some topics will be treated in a cursory manner. In this case, the civil liability portion received superficial treatment. The criminal aspects of intoxication is, on the other hand, exhaustively covered. It includes helpful appendices, an in-depth study of the scientific aspects of intoxication, a comprehensive bibliography of the relevant scientific literature, as well as an impressive chapter on roadblocks.

Less helpful were the four (out of forty) chapters on civil liability (or "dram shop") issues. Although most of the general topics were at least cursorily addressed, the author completely ignores the current debate over the various public policy rationales used in dram shop statutory reform and case law. Portraying dram shop liability as a concept that can wed legal and public health interests was the main premise behind the drafting of the Model Alcoholic Beverage Retail Licensee Liability Act, which was appended to Chapter 38 of this treatise. Unfortunately, the accompanying provisions to the model provisions were omitted, and the author failed to adequately explain why the Model Dram Shop Act was included as an appendix. Additionally, no checklists or forms were provided for the civil litigator.

The strength of the treatise lies in the criminal and scientific portions of the treatise. Updating this first edition is highly recommended, as laws regarding alcoholic beverage consumption and intoxication are extremely fluid.

New Films/Videos

Videos Highlight Women's Issues

Two recent videotape releases focus on women's issues, an area often overlooked in the substance abuse field. Due to the paucity of thoughtful audiovisual materials on the subject, these films deserve great attention and wide distribution. "Women and Chemical Dependency" and "Women and Pills: A Look at the Use of Legal Drugs" provide insights into the specific causes and effects of substance abuse in women that are important for prevention, intervention and treatment. Both are recommended by the Wisconsin Clearinghouse staff to help fill the need for materials on women's issues.

The role of sexism and other sex-specific causative factors in the initiation and progression of alcohol and other drug abuse is examined in a meaningful way in both "Women and Chemical Dependency" and "Women and Pills". Their primary strengths derive from interviews with sensitive, articulate recovering women who are willing to share their insights in a personal, introspective manner. They clearly express the feelings that preceded and accompanied their addiction: frustration and boredom with their limited roles as housewives; self hate, shame, and remorse because their addiction was so "unladylike"; guilt, depression, and misery; and hostility in their relationships. Both tapes provide excellent portrayals of the ways in which drugs have been destructive for women.

While the tapes would be very useful for intervention, treatment and recovery efforts for white middle and upper class women, they lack comments and issues that address the special needs of adolescent girls, and minority, poor and working class women. Neither one provides direct prevention information nor a clear message about where to get help. "Women and Pills" discusses the role of doctors and drug companies in the abuse of prescription drugs, but gives no background information on this subject. Only marginally does it deal with alcohol problems in women. "Women and Chemical Dependency" uses narration interspersed with interviews to provide a general discussion of the issues including alcohol abuse. This results in a more coherent structure than "Women and Pills". However, it contains very little specific information on prescription drug problems in women.

"Women and Pills" lasts 28 minutes and is sold for $510 by Kinetic, 255 Delaware, Buffalo, NY 14202. Free preview is available for purchase consideration. "Women and Chemical Dependency" costs $50 to preview (applicable to purchase) and sells for $560. This 38-minute tape is available from Gary Whiteaker Company, Inc., 615 South Belt West, Belleville, IL 62221. Both are sold in videotape and 16 mm formats.

The need for materials to raise the awareness of women's issues in substance abuse is great. Both of these fine productions deserve your attention.

Questions & Requests

Harry Shapiro would be interested to hear about any videos or audio/visual packs for use in health education in schools or the in-service training of professionals (social workers, probation officers, etc.) that:

1. Are not too American/Canadian oriented such that they would be impossible to use with a British audience.
2. Do not fall into the "shock/horror" category of resource materials.

Notes from the Chair

Virginia Rolett, Librarian
Project Cork

It was wonderful to welcome so many old and new friends at the SALIS meeting here in Hanover in October. New England fall weather is always unpredictable but the weatherman was one of many stars of the week with a spectacular Indian Summer. It was the help of numerous members that made the meeting stimulating, interesting and enjoyable. Special thanks to Margy Chan, Dortha Dilisio, Andrea Mitchell, Leonore Burts, Joan Frederickson, Patricia MacNeil-Maxwell, Penny Page, Karen Roe, Mary Scheide, Linda Scott, Nancy Sutherland, and Gail Weinberg. In addition several members helped in planning and then were unable to come and enjoy the fruit of their efforts. Highlights of the meeting included workshops on Reference Sources, and Public Images of Information Services, a full day of hands-on database searching and a film festival. We hope to see you all next October in Canada (Calgary or Banff) where we will be hosted by the Canadian Special Interest Group with plans for a symposium.

I am pleased to be able to continue as SALIS Chair and am looking forward to another enjoyable year with the continuation of the same board of energetic colleagues.

1987 Dues Reminder

Remember to keep current with your membership by sending in your check for $25.00 to the membership chair, Nancy Sutherland. There will be a fourth edition of the SALIS Directory in 1987 which will be mailed immediately upon publication to all contributing members. Membership also includes a subscription to the quarterly SALIS News, regular mailings from the National Clearinghouse for Alcohol Information, interlibrary borrowing privileges from some SALIS libraries, and correspondence and communications from the chair as needed. Names of all 1987 members will be listed in the forthcoming SALIS News Vol. 6, No. 4, Winter 86/87. Be sure and make the list.

NCA Invites SALIS

Cleveland anyone?

The National Council on Alcoholism has invited SALIS to join them in Cleveland at the National Alcoholism Forum, April 22 - 27, 1987. The theme is "Alcohol and Sports." A room will be provided for SALIS members to hold a mid-year meeting should enough members be present.

Any SALIS members who are planning to attend the Forum should write or call Virginia Rolett or Andrea Mitchell. At least two SALIS representatives are needed to host a "Get to Know SALIS Librarians" function currently being planned for this meeting.

Conference Highlights 1986

Hanover, NH was crisp and glorious for the three days of SALIS meetings, training and comraderie. Many new faces and an agenda which kept us going from 9am to 10pm the first two days, 8:30 to 12:00 on Friday. As always, it still wasn't enough time to talk to one's colleagues about all there is to exchange.

A reception on Tuesday evening in the beautiful Hanover Inn helped everyone to get acquainted.

Wednesday morning began with a presentation by Nancy Sutherland and Andrea Mitchell on "Manual Alcohol Reference Sources for Research and Information." A bibliography accompanied this workshop and is available from either Nancy or Andrea.

The afternoon session began with a welcome from Jean Kinney, Director of the Project Cork Institute and moved on to "An Overview of the NCALI Library, Database and Reference Services" by Leonore Burts which included the following information:

- 5000-8000 requests for information per month received by NCALI
- 5-10% of these require research
- more than 200 subject codes to access information via the database
- over 500 titles in the NCALI inventory
- the following files have been created: Serials file; NTIS Data File (over 30 citations -- printed version every 6 months); GPO Data File.
- With the new collection development policy focused more on social science materials, 380 items are added to the database each month.

Additionally, Leonore reported that DIALOG had agreed to mount the NCALI database with no cost to NCALI. NCALI agreed to waive any royalties. Costs for access are still being negotiated.

Karen Roe presented the results of trying to put together a bibliography on "Dual Disabilities" by accessing several different discipline databases. Contact Karen for the bibliography.

"Acquisitions for a Substance Abuse Collection" was the topic of Joan Frederikson's informative presentation, followed by Penny Page's "Planning a Publication Project", a behind the scenes look at what it takes to put together an annotated bibliography and get it published. (Penny's recent publication Alcohol Use and Alcoholism: A Guide to the Literature was the "project" background). Linda Scott ended the afternoon session with a presentation on the AADAC (Canada) Online Catalog project, using the SPIRES integrated system.

"Alcohol in Art", a slide presentation by Professor of Art at Dartmouth, Robert McGrath, followed dinner that evening. Works from the Greeks to the modern era, i.e. Claes Oldenberg's "Symbolic Self Portrait" gave an expansive history of alcohol's representation in art. (The names of materials shown are available as a handout from SALIS Chair, Virginia Rolett).

Concomitant film showings and hands-on BRS-Colleague and Cork Online training sessions filled the second day, followed by a warm and hospitable dinner for all at the Rolett's home that evening.

Friday continued with a three part "Public Images of Information Services" by Margy Chan, Mary Scheide and Gail Weinberg. Margy presented a video done by the ARF on the ARF library and information services, and told the group that non-staff use of the services has increased over 30% in the past couple of years. In an overview of the services of the Minnesota Prevention Resource Center, Mary Scheide also indicated that the increase in demand for services had challenged them to think of new ways to meet the needs. Gail Weinberg gave an update and description of the Drug Info Database as it is now operating.

In all, this conference was a myriad of new database information, problems encountered with the increasing awareness of substance abuse in society, how to respond to the information needs, where to find the information, and what we as an association and network have been able to realize and accomplish these past eight years of our growth and development. New plans and projects were developed in the Business Meetings to be discussed elsewhere in this issue.

Anti-Drug Legislation: A Plea to All SALIS Members

By now, most of you have probably read about the Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1986. (See Alcoholism Report October 31, 1986 and Drug Abuse Report Special Supplement October 22, 1986). One part of this legislation is a possible 10 steps back for SALIS efforts over the past three years to make the NCALI database publicly available through a commercial vendor. This legislation repeals the NIAAA's National Clearinghouse for Alcohol Information and NIDA's National Clearinghouse for Drug Abuse Information. What does this mean? The National Clearinghouse for Alcohol Information is soon to be defunct. The plan according to the new act is to combine the two clearinghouses under the newly created OSAP -- Office of Substance Abuse Prevention -- which would be under the jurisdiction of the Alcohol, Drug Abuse and Mental Health Administration (ADAMHA). In other words -- another step up in the bureaucracy and what about the alcohol database? Will the new joint clearinghouse have a combined alcohol and drug database? And will the alcohol database be held back from its public distribution until drug titles have been added?

Please write letters to comment to NIAAA Director
Enoch Gordis
NIAAA
Room 16-105
Parklawn Building
5600 Fishers Lane
Rockville, MD 20857

or

Donald Ian MacDonald, Director
ADAMHA
Room 12-104
Parklawn Building
5600 Fishers Lane
Rockville, MD 20857

What we need to stress is our belief in the strengths and value of the alcohol database -- and the necessity of its continued update with new citations indexed and abstracted, for public access via one of the major commercial vendors -- i.e. DIALOG, Now!

SALIS Member Updates

Elsewhere in this issue 86 member updates and SALIS Executive Board members have been listed. The next issue of SALIS News will contain the membership list for 1987. It's time to renew your membership!

News About SALIS Members

Carol Jelich, Librarian for the National Clearinghouse for Alcohol Information, has left the NCALI. This is an unfortunate loss to SALIS as Carol was a very active and supportive member. Jory Barone, Research Manager and Head of Reference Services has also recently left the NCALI, and although not an official SALIS member, was very responsive to SALIS needs and recommendations.

SALIS Business Meeting

All SALIS members will be receiving copies of the minutes of the annual SALIS business meeting conducted at the conference in Hanover, along with a new position description of the SALIS executive board: Chair, Vice-Chair, Secretary, Treasurer, and SALIS News Editor.

Briefly the SALIS business meeting concerned the following:

- proposal to provide token funding of $100.00 for travel to annual SALIS business meeting for Executive Board members whose employers are unable to provide travel funds was approved.
- SALIS officers for 1986 re-slotted for 1987 were approved by members to continue for the 1987 year. See SALIS Member Updates for the addresses and phone numbers of the Executive Board.
- A position description of the executive as noted above was circulated and approved. Anyone who is not a SALIS member but would like to receive a copy should write to SALIS Chair, Virginia Rolett.
- A major change to note in the position responsibilities is that Nancy Sutherland, Secretary and Membership Chair will now answer membership inquiries and receive all applications and dues for membership.
- New attempts are being made to attract more subscriptions to the SALIS News. A description and sample copy were recently sent to the NLM regional library newsletter editors asking them to publish the description with an offer for a sample issue in the NLM regional newsletters.
- A 4th edition of the SALIS Directory is currently being planned. Questionnaires will be sent in early 1987. Anyone who is now a SALIS member or has been in the directory previously will be receiving the questionnaire. If you know of a special library or clearinghouse that should be included in the Directory, please contact Andrea Mitchell, Directory compiler and editor. Any suggestions for new information to be collected and included in the directory are welcome and greatly appreciated. This directory is aimed at SALIS members and like individuals in the substance abuse field to provide reference to where substance abuse information is located. It will include libraries, clearinghouses and other specialized resource centers whose main topic is substance use and abuse. Additionally there will be the directory listing of other substance abuse constituent organizations: associations, foundations, self help groups including name, address and phone.
- The 1987 SALIS Conference will be hosted by the Canadian Special Interest Group who will organize a symposium on a special topic. More information on this program and the location for the meeting will be forthcoming.
- SALIS received an invitation from the National Council on Alcoholism to meet during NCA's annual meeting in Cleveland, April 1987. (see "NCA Invites SALIS," elsewhere in this issue).
- The major implications from the Anti-Drug Legislation concerning the repeal of the National Clearinghouse for Alcohol Information and the National Clearinghouse for Drug Abuse Information was discussed. A proposal that SALIS make known to the new NIAAA Director, Enoch Gordis, its concern for the NCALI database and the needs of research and other professionals and the public for substance abuse information was approved. Since the conference, correspondence to Enoch Gordis, NIAAA and Donald MacDonald, Director of Alcohol, Drug Abuse and Mental Health Administration, were sent from SALIS Chair Virginia Rolett. Any SALIS member, who would like to receive a copy of these communications should contact Virginia Rolett. SALIS members are urged to write letters on behalf of SALIS or as individuals to make known the needs for substance abuse information and the importance of a database that is topic focused i.e. alcohol, irrespective of discipline.

- A Union List of Serials for SALIS member libraries was readdressed. Karen Roe, SALIS Treasurer, needs volunteers for a committee to work on the possibility of creating this reference work. Please contact Karen if you would like to work on this project, or even if you just want to stress its utility.

New Data Center on Smoking and Health

Online and Database News

DIRLINE (Directory Line) is an online database of organizations and associations, and is said to be a good complementary tool to the Encyclopedia of Associations. Originally information maintained by the Library of Congress referral center, this file contains many references to alcohol and other drug associations and organizations including SALIS. Additionally, according to the NLM Technical Bulletin, October 1986, a subfile of DIRLINE, prepared by the National Clearinghouse for Drug Abuse Information "will contain information on 50 of the DRACON centers." This DRACON subfile will be identified in DIRLINE by the acronym DRA in the Secondary Source Identifier (SI) field. A future NLM Technical Bulletin will contain more details describing this subfile.

New Terms from NLM

The National Library of Medicine has added the following MESH terms for 1987.

"Alcohol Dehydrogenase"

"Bulimia"

"Accidental Falls"

"Street Drugs" has been changed from a minor to a major heading.

Alcohol Program at SLA

As chair of the Social and Human Resources Section of the Social Science Division of Special Libraries Association, I am planning a program entitled, "Alcohol -- The No. 1 Drug Problem: New Prevention Issues and Information Sources" to be presented June 9, 1987 at the annual SLA meeting in Anaheim.

Jim Mosher, Director, Alcohol Policy Initiatives Project, Trauma Foundation, San Francisco will speak on "Prevention of Alcohol-Related Problems: Conceptual and Global Issues." Following Jim, I will give a presentation on two major information resources: SALIS and the NCALI Database.

Please try to get the word out to your local SLA chapter (submit an announcement to your chapter newsletter) that this alcohol program will be presented at SLA. While most of us are aware of the enormity of the costs of alcohol problems to society, it is still well hidden with respect to the general population. The more we can do to educate our colleagues outside the substance abuse field, the more we have contributed as substance abuse information specialists. If any of you would like additional information, please contact me.

Produced by the University of California -- San Diego Extension Program on Alcohol Issues, Prevention File launched its premier issue Fall 86. Contents included articles on server intervention making an impact at a San Diego nitespot, an interview with the local alcoholic beverage control director, a description of how a group of clergy have intervened to prevent alcohol problems, plus updates on legislation and policy concerned with the prevention of alcohol problems.

Prevention professionals will want to read this cover to cover. It gives a full picture of what one community can do and is doing to tackle its alcohol problems. Write to:

CONFERENCES

In SALIS News Vol. 6, No. 2, several sources were given for finding information on forthcoming Conferences, Seminars, Workshops and other Training Events. The following are to be added to that list.

- Alcohol Awareness Service. Bi-monthly. Rockville, MD: NCALI. PO Box 2345, Rockville, MD 20852
- Alcoholism & Addiction Conference Calendar Plus Seminars and Workshops. In: Alcoholism & Addiction, November/December 1986. pp. 33 - 47. Seattle, WA: ALCOM. 1005 N.E. 72nd, Seattle, WA 98115

Related to this education-training pursuit, one might want to know which colleges and universities offer courses or degree programs in the area of alcohol and drugs. Besides checking the course catalogs of individual schools, do any of you have a reference source to be listed? Please send them to me and I will print them in the next issue.

- The July/August issue of EAP Digest pp. 49 - 53 had an EAP guide to U.S. colleges and universities offering courses or degree programs in the employee assistance field.

DIRECTORIES

Crawford, Alex (compiler editor). Register of United Kingdom Alcohol Research 1985 - 1986. London: Brewers Society, 1986. 256 p.

Arranged by broad subject category: 1) Alcohol in the Community; 2) Detection, Prevalence and Varieties of Misuse, and 3) Prevention and Treatment of Alcohol Problems, this directory lists more than 400 research projects current in 1985 - 86 in the United Kingdom. Entries include project title, research summary, names of principal researchers, names of department or institutions, source of financial support and starting and completion dates. Funding, institution, name and subject indexes (the latter quite detailed for this type of register) provided. Order from:

For the Lay Public

Hammond, Robert L. Almost all you ever wanted to know* about alcoholism * and a few things you may not want to know. Lansing, MI: Alcohol Research Information Service, 1986. 29 pp. 1

Hammond, Robert L. Almost all you ever wanted to know* about alcohol

* but didn't know who to ask. Lansing, MI: Alcohol Research Information Service, c1978, revised 1985. 62 pp. 2

Both of these publications are easily readable by a lay public, the first being written for such an audience, the second designed for a prevention program aimed at 7th through 12th graders. Note that the first title is "alcoholism" and the second "alcohol." The shorter document concerned with "alcoholism" gives a few of the leading statistics on alcohol-related problems and then uses a short question answer format to provide information on those basic questions such as who is "the typical alcoholic", "what is the cause of alcoholism?", "can alcoholism be inherited?", "how can you tell if you might be an alcoholic?". Using the "Jellinek Chart," the latter half of the booklet describes the symptoms of alcoholism through its three major phases. A final note concerns intervention, and how to help someone before they "hit bottom."

The larger format, longer document concerned with "alcohol" contains eleven chapters in its 62 pages. Each of these chapters focuses on a particular aspect of the alcohol story. There are many facts and figures, a little history, physiology and chemistry of alcohol in the human body, equivalency, patterns of consumption, drinking driving, taxation, expenditures, costs of the alcohol problem to society, and prevention. Cartoons and all, it is well worth having this document in your collection. For a general audience, it is a good summary overview of many of the topic areas surrounding alcohol's use and abuse and what to do about it. Order from:

SALIS Directory

Approximately 70 people have sent back questionnaires for directory entries, but we need another 40 to at least update the 1984 version. If you haven't yet sent in your questionnaire, please do. If you would rather do it by phone -- please feel free to call. If you need another copy of the questionnaire, please ask. It was hoped that "subject strengths" i.e. subject areas of the various collections could be indexed. However, in looking at some of the responses, it may not work as planned.

What I would like to know is how people use the directory. Is it mainly as a name address phone lookup? Do you refer people from other states to collections in their areas? Do you want to be able to look up DRACON affiliates? Any comments, suggestions greatly appreciated.

From the Editor

It seems as though Vol. 6 No. 3 was just finished and already it's time to begin another issue. One of my haunting questions is what do you as readers want to see in this publication? Any new ideas, suggestions, criticisms are all greatly appreciated. Remember dues for 1987 should be sent to Nancy Sutherland, and if you haven't yet sent the SALIS Directory questionnaire -- please, please do.

Member News

Catherine Weglarz is a new librarian at Rutgers replacing Pei-lan Chen.

Ling Hsu, librarian at the Prevention Research Center, has taken a new position in Florida. Her replacement and a new SALIS member is Elva Yanez.

Lynn Freedman is the new librarian at the National Clearinghouse for Alcohol Information, replacing Carol Jellich.

Congratulations to Diane Augustino for the publication of her new bibliography from Greenwood Press, Alcohol and the Family.

NCA and SALIS

Preparation for the SALIS meeting at NCA is underway. This opportunity for information specialists/librarians to meet with so many professionals in the field is a rare opportunity. It also provides a forum for SALIS members to discuss current business and plans for the forthcoming conference in Canada this fall. Please try to help make this a successful program by being there to provide input and assistance. If you are coming or want to attend, please notify either Virginia Rolett or Andrea Mitchell.

SALIS Membership — 1987

SALIS members for 1987 are listed on the insert and include all persons for whom payment has been received. If you have sent in your check and your name does not appear, please notify Nancy Sutherland, SALIS Membership Chair. Remember, dues this year will include, in addition to the SALIS News, the 4th edition of the SALIS Directory of Alcohol and Drug Abuse Clearinghouses, Libraries, Information and Resource Centers. A form for membership or subscription is included with this issue.

NCALI Database

In order to make known the SALIS organization's concern for the NCALI Alcohol Data Base, SALIS Chair Virginia Rolett wrote letters to both the Director of the Alcohol, Drug Abuse and Mental Health Administration and the Director of the National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism. In his response, Donald Ian MacDonald, Director of ADAMHA, stated that he was pleased that SALIS was interested in assisting with the efforts of the newly established Alcohol and Drug Clearinghouse; and to quote Enoch Gordis of NIAAA, "Let me assure you that we too recognize the importance of the data base and that we will continue to maintain it." All is still hopeful. There are nine more months in 1987 to see the Alcohol Data Base get on-line.

Online/Database News

"Smoking and Health" File (160), a new Dialog Database, has just been announced in the February Chronolog. Coverage includes approximately 35,500 records dating mostly from the 1960's to the present with selected material from beginning of 20th century to early 50's. Most citations include abstracts concerning scientific reports and studies on all aspects of smoking, tobacco and related health/disease issues.

The Technical Information Center of the Office on Smoking and Health produces this database and the hard-copy Smoking and Health Bulletin. Price for this file: $.75 a minute ($45.00/hour), 20¢ per full record print offline.

Periodical News

It is almost staggering to witness the proliferation of newsletters in this field. Please note especially those aimed at the law enforcement professionals, corporate executives and the treatment program directors and clinicians. The price for these "newsletters" is outrageous and, for some, further testimony of the response to the current drug war.

Alkohol och narkotika, the official journal of Sweden's CAN (Centralförbundet for alkohol-och narkotikaupplysning -- Swedish Council for Information on Alcohol and Other Drugs) is celebrating its 80th birthday. The journal was called "Tirfing" from 1907 to 1955, "Alkoholfragan" from 1956 - 1972 and "Alkohol och Narkotika" from 1973 to the present.

Bibliography

Barnes, Grace M. and Diane K. Augustino.
Alcohol and the Family: A Comprehensive Bibliography. (Bibliographies and Indexes in Sociology, Number 9). New York: Greenwood Press, 1987.

It is no less than a monumental effort to bring together more than 6,000 citations of the alcohol and family literature. Using numerous sources including the Journal of Studies on Alcohol Index, 1940 to the present, International Bibliography of Studies on Alcohol 1901 - 1950, databases from BRS, the National Clearinghouse for Alcohol Information, to name only a few, articles, books, reports, conference papers, dissertations have been compiled and then indexed by subject terms corresponding to this literature to provide the researcher, therapist, librarian with a highly valuable reference tool. Foreign language materials are included and titles have been translated.
